Friends of LVDL Announce the 2020 Scholarship Winners

The Friends of Lake Villa District Library are pleased to announce the winners of the 2020 scholarships.

Brianna Zahn, Lakes Community High School, will be attending the University of Missouri/Columbia, majoring in Environmental Science. Jesse Hertzke, Grayslake North High School, will be attending the University of Wisconsin/ Milwaukee, majoring in Occupational Studies. Nicole Meyer, Grayslake North High School, will be attending the University of Alabama/ Birmingham, majoring in pre-nursing. The three Lake Villa Township high school seniors will each receive $1000.00 to pursue a two- or four-year degree and were selected from a pool of 17 applicants.

“They all passed the interview process with flying colors”, said Friends President Ellen Wing. “The committee was very impressed with their applications.”

Established in 1977, the Friends actively support library and the surrounding community. The scholarship program began in 2018.

Lake Villa District Library enriches life in our community by connecting people with resources, services and each other.
